2023 Internship Program (Location: Hong Kong) – STEM Internship

For those interested in developing a career in the banking industry and gaining hands-on experience with exposure in an international bank before graduation, we are keen to provide departmental-based and project-based learning programs to high-calibre individuals with an opportunity to work with experienced banking professionals.

Programme Overview

Duration: July – August 2023 (8 weeks)

Potential Career Path: An internship is the beginning of an exciting journey that could take you to professional levels in the banking industry. The privilege for early selection for any graduate opportunities would be granted for those perform well in the program.

Requirements:

- Non-final year university students majoring in Computer Science
- Good analytical, communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong self-motivation and willingness to learn
- Proficiency in English (proficiency in Putonghua / Chinese is an advantage)
- Good knowledge of application software (MS Word, Excel, Powerpoint) & Chinese Word Processing
- Permanent residents of Hong Kong or holding a valid Hong Kong student visa

Interested parties are invited to apply by sending the resume with full details of education, work experience, contact telephone number and preferred internship period by an email. Habib Bank Zurich reserves the right not to make appointment for the post(s) advertised.

We are an equal opportunity employer and welcome applications from all qualified candidates. All personal information provided will be treated in strict confidence and used solely for recruitment purpose. It is possible that information about the applicant or the applicant's application will be shared within the Habib Bank Zurich Group.
